

Mediation is:-

- Voluntary and Confidential for you.
- An informal process bringing you and the Local Authority together to talk about the issues.
- About finding a way forward that works for everyone.

If you decide to Mediate or request Disagreement Resolution:-

- Your mediator will arrange the mediation session at a local venue.
- They will liaise with you and the Local Authority representative to agree arrangements.
- A mediation session lasts approximately 2 hours.
- The Mediator is neutral and impartial.

The Mediation/ Disagreement Resolution is a confidential, informal meeting. It assists parties to have a discussion in which agreements are made.

It is an opportunity to "work things out by talking things through".

SEND Mediation and Disagreement
Resolution Service.

Your expert, independent SEND Mediation Service working locally and nationally.

About Mediation and Disagreement Resolution:-

- Mediation can be a timely and effective way to resolve differences or issues around the educational, health and social care elements of an EHC Plan.
- It is voluntary for you but mandatory for the Local Authority if you choose to mediate.
- Before lodging an appeal at SEND Tribunal, parents and young people must at least consider Mediation as a way to resolve issues around the EHCP.
- Disagreement Resolution is voluntary for all parties.
- Mediation and Disagreement Resolution is free for you.
- Community Accord is contracted by but independent of your Local Authority.
- Participating in mediation does not affect your right to appeal to Tribunal.

Issues that are appealable:-

- A decision not to assess.
- Refusal to issue an EHCP after an assessment.
- You have received a final EHCP and disagree with the contents of sections B and F.
- You are unhappy with the outcome of the annual review.
- Provision or support ceases or is amended without your agreement.
- Placement or educational setting (Disagreement Resolution or you can go directly to Tribunal without contacting a mediator).
- Tribunal can make non-binding recommendations about Health and Social Care aspects of the plan when you are appealing any of the above elements.

Next Steps:-

- Contact Community Accord as soon as possible.
- We will take some contact details from you and arrange a convenient time for a Mediation Advice Call to discuss your options and timescales for appeal.

Mediation Advice Call:-

- Your mediator will listen to your concerns and find out what is really important to you.
- You will work with your Mediator to determine the best way forward.
- The Mediator will provide accurate information about the appeals process.
